VALUE ADDED COURSE: "IIIrd REVISED BASIC COURSE WORKSHOP"

PREAMBLE

This course has been ongoing as the contents have undergone periodic revision, keeping in mind the changing needs of faculty and advances in medical education. AETCOM Module endeavors to strike a balance between the five identified roles of an "Indian Medical Graduate" viz; Clinician, Leader and Member of health care team, communicator, Life-long learner and professional, right from the first professional year of training. This course is based on the premise that changing a person's attitude can change his/her behavior. It was envisaged that the successful implementation of this course will be the forerunner of the transition to competency based undergraduate medical education program proposed by and implemented now by the Regulator.

OBJECTIVE

1. To ensure that medical students have acquired the knowledge, skill and professional behaviors.
